

A large-scale explosion is taking place in the middle of a city street. A massive plume of orange and yellow fire and black smoke rises from the center of the street. Several cars are visible in the foreground and middle ground, some of which appear to be involved in the explosion. People are running on the sidewalks and in the street. The scene is set in a city with tall buildings on either side of the street. The overall atmosphere is one of chaos and destruction.

HOLLYWOOD

SAFETY MANUAL

SAFENETS GTD